This book has been downloaded 0 times.XINGOLDAO: A two-year-old boy who suffered three months of abuse by his mother finally received stitches in a major cut and is now stable. Amputee MP, Babita Talukdar, who visited the boy at Xingolandao General Hospital on Saturday, described his condition as "very, very sad". "We've been suffering as a society for too long of not taking action and giving justice to this matter. Many days pass by and I feel helpless," she said. It was Mr Talukdar's fourth visit to the hospital. The boy, who has been living on the hospital's 25th floor with his ailing mother, suffers from a severe fracture which requires medical attention, as well as a cut from the f678ea9f9e
